

MONTEREY BAY NATIONAL MARINE SANCTUARY

Habitats

Sandy beaches
Rocky shores
Kelp forests
Submarine canyon
Pelagic, open ocean
Wetlands

Key Species

Sea otter
Gray whale
Market squid
Brown Pelican
Rockfish
Giant kelp

Astonishing Facts

Monterey Bay National Marine Sanctuary's deepest point is also America's largest underwater canyon. Monterey Canyon is more than two miles down at 10,663 feet.

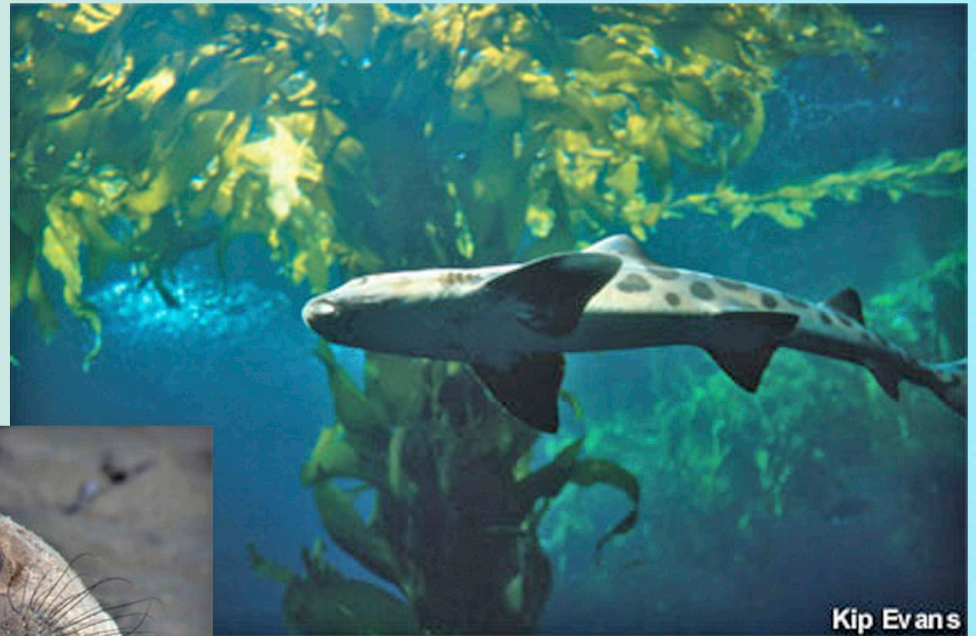

MONTEREY BAY NATIONAL MARINE SANCTUARY

Astonishing Fact

Monterey Bay NMS is larger than Yosemite or Yellowstone National Parks.

The productive marine sanctuary is also located next to one of the richest agricultural centers in the world on land.

Kip Evans

Kip Evans

Kip Evans

Kip Evans

*Sanctuary designation
September 1992*